

Acknowledgments

I am deeply honored to present this paper, which has been completed under the invaluable guidance of Assistant Prof. Dr. I sincerely thank the individuals and institutions who have contributed to the successful completion of this research project. Their support, guidance, and assistance are invaluable.

Firstly, I express my deepest gratitude to my advisor, Asst. Prof. Dr. Jirapong Ruanggoon, for his unwavering support and guidance, which were crucial in determining the direction of this research. His professional knowledge, guidance, and continuous encouragement helped manage the complexity of this research. I also thank my co-advisor, Dr. Sittichai Farungthong, and chairperson, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Tachapong Settabutr, for their insightful feedback and constructive criticism, significantly improving the quality of this study.

I extend my thanks to the Dhonburi Rajabhat University and Nanjing Xinwang Company for providing the necessary resources, including access to libraries, databases, and laboratory facilities essential for conducting experiments and collecting data.

My gratitude goes to the research participants for their cooperation and willingness to share their insights and experiences. Without these insights and experiences, this study would be impossible. I also thank my friends and family for their unwavering support, patience, and understanding during this research process. Your encouragement and belief in my abilities have fueled my motivation.

Last but not least, I express my gratitude to all those who contributed in any way to this research project, no matter how small their contributions may be. Your contribution is meaningful and worthy of appreciation.

Without the collective efforts and support of the individuals and organizations mentioned above, this study would be impossible. Thank you all for participating in this journey.
